1. District Awards Banquet. Everyone is invited to attend, and everyone is highly encouraged to NOMINATE a deserving scouter for recognition at the annual district awards banquet, May 6th. Categories of award include Scoutmaster of the Year, Cubmaster of the Year, Commissioner of the Year, etc. The district's highest award, District Award of Merit, is also awarded at this banquet. Please nominate an outstanding scouter for the recognition they deserve.

2. Tri-fold Job Descriptions. Tri-fold job descriptions are available on the district's website. These are intended to be given to NEW scout leaders so they have a basic understanding of what they are getting in to in their new assignment.

3. Unit Annual Planning. All Packs, Troops, Teams, and Crews should conduct an annual planning meeting to prepare for next year's scouting program. This planning meeting usually takes place in the spring of the preceding year. If you need assistance in conducting this meeting, consult with your Unit Commissioner. Remember – the Unit Commissioner is your unit's friend and resource identifier.

4. Farewell Tim! This Round Table is Tim Stanfill's last. He has accepted a position with national scouting's high adventure program at the Florida Sea Base. Tim, Melissa, and their new-born (due the first of April) will depart the Treasure Valley in early April. Please take the time to wish Tim and his family all the best in their new assignment.
