

BIGFOOT DISTRICT

BOY SCOUT ADULT LEADER OUTDOOR TRAINING/ CUB SCOUT LEADER BALOO TRAINING

This is the Outdoor portion of the Boy Scout Adult Leader Basic Training. It is required to earn the "TRAINED" patch for Boy Scout Adult Leaders.

For those who have attended the Essentials & Leader Specific Training this will complete your training. If you have not had Essentials & Leader Specific Training please attend so when you do have the Essentials & Leader Specific Training you will then have completed your training.

Cub Scout Leaders giving leadership to a pack overnighiter must complete Basic Adult Outdoor Orientation, referred to as BALOO Training.

DATE & TIME: Friday March 27, 2009 starting at 6:00 PM SHARP and will go until 5:00 PM Saturday. (You must attend the entire time from Friday evening until Saturday evening to complete the course.)

*BALOO Training starts at 8:00 AM Saturday and will go to 5:00 PM.

LOCATION: Curtis Park in Caldwell, ID, see the attached map

COST: $12.00 fee to cover food

You will need a tent and your outdoor gear, as we will be staying overnight. Don't forget your camp chair! If you need a tent let us know, we have a few available. YOU ALSO NEED TO BRING A COMPASS.

RSVP: Please let us know you are attending, or for further info contact:

RICH WARDLE: CELL: 921-8795 or rwscout@cablone.net (District Training Chair)

DONNALEE PACKER: HM: 461-5925 or packattack_1@juno.com (BALOO Training)

JERRY MCCARDELL: HM: 442-2757 or mccardellj@msn.com (Course Director)

